

Agnes B. Harkins

March 7, 2016

Agnes B. Harkins 98, of Richmond, VA, formally of Parkersburg WV, went to be with her Lord and Savior on March 7, 2016 at Autumn Care Of Mechanicsville, Virginia.

She is preceded in death by her Husband, Harry E. Harkins; daughter, Sheila Ann; her granddaughter, Kristina Harkins Vaughn; and nine brothers and sisters.

She survived by her children, Harry Jr (Darlene), Leisa George (Chuck), and Donald Edgell (Lorena); 5 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Agnes greatest joy was caring for her family. She was a prayer warrior and she loved all children and all of God's creation.

Agnes is a member of Aldersgate Methodist Church, Richmond, VA and a former longtime member of Fairlawn Baptist Church, Parkersburg, WV

Funeral services will be conducted 2:00 P.M. Friday at the Vaughan Funeral Home, Parkersburg with Clarence Mathess officiating. Interment will follow in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery. The family will receive visitors one hour prior to services on Friday.

Cemetery

Mt. Olivet Cemetery

23rd Street

Parkersburg, WV, 26101

Events

MAR Visitation 01:00PM - 02:00PM

11

Vaughan Funeral Home

1010 Murdoch Ave., Parkersburg, WV, US, 26101

MAR Funeral Services 02:00PM

11

Vaughan Funeral Home

1010 Murdoch Ave., Parkersburg, WV, US, 26101

Comments

“ I remember visiting Aunt Agnes and Uncle Harry's home and feeling the love there. I spent a week one summer at their home playing with my cousin and was amazed at the wonderful meals Aunt Agnes would prepare for us to enjoy. It is hard to believe that all of Mom's siblings have now passed. Hoping that you can find comfort in the fond memories of you Mother and Grandmother created during her long life. With love and thoughts, Your cousin, Sharon Brookover Yoho.

Sharon Yoho - March 12, 2016 at 11:11 AM

“ Thank you Sharon, their home in Parkersburg was wonderful. Wish I could have raised my children in that home. Would love to have a cousin reunion one day.

leisa George - March 19, 2016 at 11:52 AM

“ Heartfelt sympathy is extended to my cousins in the loss of their mother, my Aunt Agnes. Thinking of all the visits to their yellow house in Parkersburg. She always had pretty flowers. I remember one of the last times I saw her in Richmond, we went to a yard sale on her street. While there, instead haggling to get an item at a lower price, like we all do, she told the owner, "You are not asking enough for that picture. here is another dollar". There happened to be a bird in the picture, one of God's creatures that she dearly loved. God bless you all.

Delores Brookover Reynolds - March 07, 2016 at 09:18 PM